Honoring

“Women of Heart”

JEANNE (LITEPLO) CARROLL '66 ALICE McDERMOTT '71

“Man of Heart”

JOHN D. CAMERON, JR., P '02

We are pleased to honor three exceptional individuals for their remarkable accomplishments and dedication to Sacred Heart. Our “Women of Heart” and “Man of Heart” have each made a lasting impact on Sacred Heart and continue to embrace our mission of Inclusive Love, Unity, Reconciliation, and Peace & Justice.

JOHN CAMERON, JR., P '02 is one of Sacred Heart's most supportive parents contributing his time, talent, and treasure ever since his daughter entered Sacred Heart as a freshman in 1998. John served as a member of the SHA Board of Trustees for 6 years. He is the founder and managing partner of the award-winning, multidisciplinary firm Cameron Engineering & Associates, LLP. Under his direction, the company has achieved noteworthy success, having received many local, State, and National awards. John is also Chairman of the LI Regional Planning Council, which promotes the physical, economic, and social health and well being of Long Island and its residents. His family includes his wife, Loretta, daughter Christine '02 and her fiancé John and son Andrew, his wife Colleen and newborn son Jack.

JEANNE (LITEPLO) CARROLL '66, while having realized amazing professional success, remains a true “Woman of Heart”. She is a Senior Vice President of Capital Research Company, and a Vice President and Portfolio Counselor of Capital World Growth and Income Fund. Jeanne is a Chartered Financial Analyst and a member of the NY Society of Security Analysts. After graduating from Sacred Heart Jeanne went on to receive her M.B.A. from St. John's University, where she met her husband Paul. Married for 40 years, Jeanne is an ardent supporter of catholic education and has been actively involved in a multitude of parish service ministries.

ALICE McDERMOTT '71 is an accomplished author having published multiple critically acclaimed works of fiction, often drawing on her Irish heritage and Long Island roots when developing her stories. She has received numerous awards including the prestigious National Book Award. In addition to her writing she is John's Hopkins University's Richard A. Macksey Professor of the Humanities. When interviewed by a PBS reporter, regarding the plot of an award winning novel, she again returned to her roots as a true “Woman of Heart” replying “Charming Billy is ultimately a novel about faith, and what we believe in, and above all, what we choose to believe in.” Alice currently lives outside of Washington, D.C. with her husband, a neuroscientist, and their three children.
